

Scott Heid
Associate Director
Corporate Communications
2 Procter & Gamble Plaza
Cincinnati, OH 45202
(513) 983-4318 phone
www.pg.com

October 14, 2014

Beata Faracik
Polish Institute for Human Rights and Business

Danuta Przywara
Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights

Dear Ms. Faracik and Ms. Przywara,

Thank you for your September 5th letter to Len Sauers regarding the 2015 European Games to be held in Baku, Azerbaijan.

Given the questions you raised regarding our support of the 2015 European Games we would like to clarify our involvement. We have not contributed funds to the organizing committee of the European games, but are supporting the athletes and teams that will compete from a variety of nations, including Azerbaijan.

As a company, our respect for Human Rights is fundamental to the way we manage our business. We support the U.N. Guiding Principles for Business and Human Rights which respects and honors the principles of internationally recognized human rights. I am providing a copy of our Human Rights Policy Statement for more information.

We respect your coalition's dedication for furthering human rights. The European Games provide an opportunity to bring nations together in a positive and inspirational way. As a global company operating across a diversity of laws, we will also continue to reflect our values of respect and inclusion for every person.

Sincerely,

Scott Heid
Associate Director
Corporate Communications
The Procter and Gamble Company