

Sustainable Market Actors for Responsible Trade
(Project SMART)

International Stakeholder Conference
Sustainability in Supply Chains

Friday, 27 October 2017
Ministry of Economic Development, Room „Gęsickiej”
Plac Trzech Krzyży 3/5 (access from Wspólna street),
Warsaw, Poland

Polish Institute
for Human Rights and Business

UiO : SMART

°CICERO
Center for International
Climate Research

in cooperation with

MINISTRY
OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Kingdom of the Netherlands

Embassy of Sweden
Warsaw

Agenda

09.00 – 09.30

Registration. Welcome tea/coffee.

SESSION I

9.30 – 09.40

Welcome and opening of the conference

- » Joanna Szymonek, Co-founder and Chairperson of the Board, Polish Institute for Human Rights and Business
- » dr Maja van der Velden, University of Oslo

9.40–9.50

Opening remarks by Jacqueline Kacprzak, Ministry of Economic Development of Poland

09.50 – 10.00

Get SMART in 10 minutes – video by Beate Sjafell, University of Oslo

10.00 – 10.20

Responsible business conduct and international standards concerning due diligence in supply chain – Presentation by Jacqueline Kacprzak, Ministry of Economic Development of Poland

SESSION II – PRACTICAL CHALLENGES

10.20– 11.45

Social and environmental risk in supply chains and new rules for the electronics sector: What does it all mean for mobile phone production?

Moderator Mark Taylor, Fafo Research Foundation

- » Social and Environmental Risk in the production life-cycle of mobile phones by Dr Maja van der Velden, University of Oslo and SMART project
- » What the new rules mean for companies by Julie Timon, DG Trade, European Commission
- » Mobile phones, Waste Management and Urban Mining by Joost de Kluijver, Director, Closing the Loop
- » Q&A with presenters

11.45 – 12.00

Coffee Break

SESSION III – SOLUTIONS AND TOOLS

12.00 – 12.55

The role of states in ensuring sustainable and ethical supply chains that respect human rights

Moderator: Tadeusz Joniewicz, Responsible Business Forum (FOB)

» Role of the public procurement:

- » The Swedish perspective by Karin Lonaeus, Nationella Kansliet Hallbar Upphandling;
- » The Dutch perspective by ing. Albert Geuchies, Ministerie van Onderwijs, Cultuur en Wetenschap
- » Role of the Export Credit Agencies in ensuring ethical supply chains:
 - » The Norwegian perspective by Jostein Djupvik, Export Credit Norway

13.00 – 14.00

LUNCH

14.00 – 14.55

Supply Chain Due Diligence. How Polish companies integrate human rights concerns into supply chain management.

Moderator: dr. Agata Rudnicka-Reichel, Łódź University, external expert at the Responsible Business Forum

- » Supply chain in apparel industry – video by Sławomir Ronkowski, Communications and Sustainable Development Director LPP S.A., Anna Miazga, CSR Coordinator, LPP S.A.
- » Sustainable supply chain is possible – Monika Krawczykowska, SLOGAN

15.00 – 16.25

Panel Discussion: Next steps. What is needed to improve sustainability of the supply chains in Poland?

Moderation: Joanna Szymonek, Polish Institute for Human Rights and Business Panelists:

- » Jacqueline Kacprzak, Ministers' Counselor, Coordinator, Unit of CSR and Stakeholders' Affairs, Minister's Office, Ministry of Economic Development
 - » Danuta Kędzierska, Social Compliance Auditor, Social Responsibility Standards Manager, TÜV Rheinland Polska Sp. z o.o.
 - » Magdalena Rzeszotalska, Corporate Communications & CSR Director, Polpharma
 - » Joanna Szabuńko, Vice-president, Buy Responsibly Foundation (Fundacja Kupuj Odpowiedzialnie)
 - » Norbert Kusiak, Head of Economic Policy and Structural Funds Department, All-Poland Alliance of Trade Unions (OPZZ)
-

16.25 – 16.30

Wrap up and conclusions.

